About the Conference

The Zealous Advocacy Conference, now in its sixteenth year, is an annual training seminar organized by the Center for Children, Law & Policy and the Southwest Juvenile Defender Center. The conference is the premier professional development training for juvenile public defense attorneys practicing in the Southwestern United States. This year's conference will be celebrating the 50th Anniversary of In re Gault, the landmark Supreme Court case, granting children the right to counsel in delinquency cases.

CLE Hours (pending)

Attendees will receive 15 hours of CLE credit with 3 ethics hours. We will also be applying for specialization credit in criminal appellate, criminal law, family law and juvenile law.

Registration

Early registration from July 16, 2016 to April 3,2017 will be $50. April 4, 2017 registration will be $250.00. Breakfast, lunch and parking is included with registration.

Registration is free for University of Houston Law Center students. J.D. and L.L.M. Students attending other law schools, as well as students from non-law disciplines, may register at a discounted rate of $25.00.

Conference Hotel

The most convenient hotel for out-of-town attendees is the University of Houston Hilton Hotel located on the UH campus.
