

Alumni in the News

UH Law Alumni Association Awards 2021-2022 Recipients Announced

The UH Law Alumni Association has selected outstanding alumni and law faculty who have made significant contributions and who continue to showcase the Law Center in the business and legal community.

Jim M. Perdue, Sr. '63 enters Trial Lawyer Hall of Fame

University of Houston Law Center alumnus Jim M. Perdue Sr. was celebrated recently as one of the best trial attorneys in the country as a 2022 inductee into the Trial Lawyer Hall of Fame. The event honoring legendary trial lawyers was held in Las Vegas on April 6

Stephen Wallace '83 Establishes Endowed Scholarship and Scholarship Match through 2024

For Stephen Wallace, a 1983 graduate of the University of Houston Law Center, supporting future scholars at UH is about advocating for education.

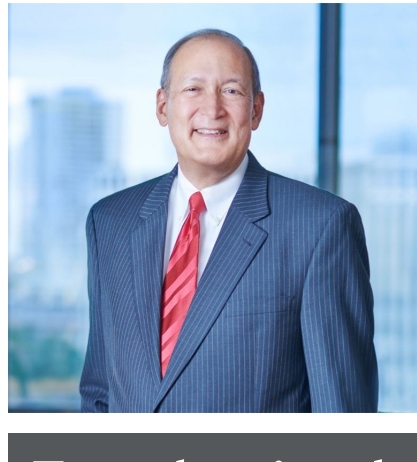

Thanks to the Stephen (J.D. '83) and Kristine G. Wallace Endowed Scholarship, the couple's goal of supporting the UH Law Center and its students will soon come to fruition.

UHLC alumna, Nina B. Skinner '01, has joined Blank Rome LLP as a partner at the firm's Corporate, M&A, and Securities group in Houston

Blank Rome LLP is pleased to welcome Nina Bianchi Skinner to the firm's Corporate, M&A, and Securities group in Houston. Nina has a notable track record as a trusted corporate and M&A adviser to energy, manufacturing, industrial, and services companies of all sizes, from local businesses to multinational corporations.

UHLC alumnus, Charles Hammaker '86, has been appointed to the Galveston County Water Control & Improvement District No. 12 Board of Directors

Bressler, Amery & Ross, P.C. is proud to announce that Texas Counsel Charles A. Hammaker has been appointed to the Galveston County Water Control & Improvement District No. 12 Board of Directors.

Faculty in the News

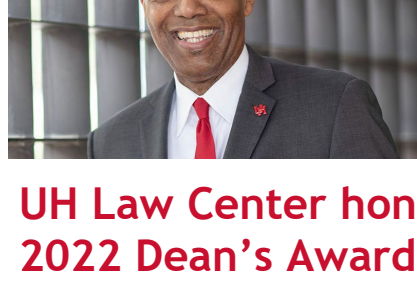

UH Law's Renee Knake Jefferson Named Fulbright Alumni Ambassador

World-renowned scholar. Award-winning author. Sought-after speaker.

And now, Renee Knake Jefferson is the University of Houston's newest Fulbright Alumni Ambassador.

The Houston Chronicle published Dean Baynes' op-ed discussing four ways that Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson could change the U.S. Supreme Court

The confirmation of Supreme Court Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson is cause for celebration. Not only has the nation gained a jurist on the highest court with stellar academic credentials and legal experience, but the Supreme Court will have its first Black woman justice.

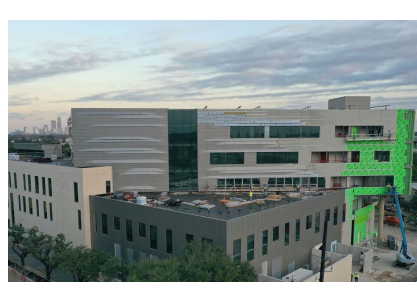

UH Law Center honors students, faculty and staff at 2022 Dean's Awards Ceremony

The University of Houston Law Center held its annual Dean's Awards Ceremony on April 11 to recognize the achievements of law faculty, students, and staff. The event was held virtually and was co-hosted by UH Law Center Dean Leonard M. Baynes and Associate Dean of Law Alumni and Community Relations Sondra Tennessee.

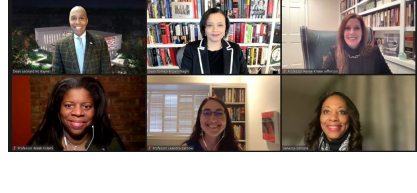

More News

Three UH Law Center specialty programs keep longstanding Top 10 status in latest U.S. News & World Report rankings

Multiple University of Houston Law Center specialty programs are among the best in the country, according to results of a new U.S. News & World Report annual survey released today. UH Law's three national top 10 programs are: Intellectual Property and Information Law which ranks No. 6, Health Law which ranks No. 7 and its part-time program which comes in at number 9.

Rosenberg lecture focuses on first Black female federal justice

The topic of the University of Houston Law Center's annual Yale L. Rosenberg Memorial Lecture was well-timed this year. Held on March 22, the discussion centered on Judge Constance Baker Motley, the nation's first Black female federal justice and a new book on Motley written by Harvard scholar, Tomiko Brown-Nagin.

UH Global Law and Policy for the Americas webinar examines lessons from the pandemic

Legal scholars from around the world virtually convened with the University of Houston Law Center for a wide-reaching panel on "Global Challenges, Local Solutions: Supply Chains, Sustainability, and Governance," offering insights and action steps to some of today's pressing issues.

UH Law Center Conference Addresses Energy Implications of Russia's Ukrainian Invasion

The 4th Annual Denney L. Wright International Energy Tax Conference and the Houston Business and Tax Law Journal's 22nd Annual Symposium daylong conference addressed as a key topic the energy crisis caused by the war in Ukraine.

Events

University of Houston Law Alumni Association & The Young Alumni Committee invite you to an

Alumni Reconnecting Happy Hour

Wednesday, May 11, 2022
6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Saint Arnold Brewing Company
2000 Lyons Avenue
Houston, Texas 77020

University of Houston Law Alumni Association Annual Meeting & Reception

in conjunction with the State Bar of Texas Annual Meeting

Thursday, June 9, 2022
5:30 - 7:00 pm

Marriott Marquis
1777 Walker Street
Houston, Texas 77010

For more information, please call the Office of Law Alumni Relations at 713-743-2201 or email lawalumni@uh.edu.

Contact us

- UH Law Center Home: law.uh.edu
- Have some news? Send it to us!
- To subscribe to eBriefcase click here
- To donate to the Law Center click here

Carrie Criado
Assistant Dean of Communications and Marketing

713-743-2184
cacriado@central.uh.edu

The Law Center would like to stay connected with you. Please let us know about your accomplishments and achievements. We will also keep you informed about free CLE and other exciting events, new initiatives, and great happenings here. Please help us by sending your updated contact information to lawalumni@uh.edu today!

Sondra Tennessee
Associate Dean for Alumni & Community Relations
stennessee@uh.edu

Unsubscribe | Privacy Notice | University of Houston Law Center, 4604 Calhoun Rd, Houston, TX 77204