Organization of the Course

Course Description. Welcome to one of the most important classes in the law school curriculum. More than any other class you will take during your time in law school, this course is about you and your future. The course is designed to acquaint you with the lawyer's obligations—both individual and as a member of the legal profession—to the world in which he/she lives. In addition to a discussion of ethical concerns inherent in the practice of law, we will cover lawyer regulation including the Model Rules of Professional Conduct. We also will consider what it means for you to become a member of the legal profession at a time of economic pressure, technological advancement and international competition. A lawyer's work largely turns upon relationships, namely between the lawyer and client, but also in the connections made with fellow lawyers, other professionals and society in general. This course is your opportunity to reflect upon the lawyer you will become as you build these relationships over the coming years. I consider it my professional responsibility to do all that I can in this course to ensure that you will be well-equipped for a rewarding and meaningful career in the law. I will demand excellence from you; you should expect the same from me.

This course provides an overview of the professional responsibility of lawyers, exploring common ethical problems that lawyers encounter in practice. This course will be taught primarily through the hypotheticals found in the casebook. The hypotheticals are in the form of multiple-choice questions, which conform to the style of the Multi-State Professional Responsibility Exam (MPRE). Our class discussions will include topics such as what the ABA MODEL RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT require, state variations that are common, the wisdom of various policy choices, how the rules might apply to a hypothetical fact pattern, the pressures that might cause a lawyer to ignore regulatory rules, and the steps that you or others might take to better serve clients and to minimize the chance of a regulatory violation. Although we will study some additional materials, the ABA MODEL RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT will be the primary source of regulation covered in this course.

Learning Outcomes. During your time in this course, you will develop competence in the following:

- Knowledge and understanding of substantive and procedural law regulating lawyers' conduct;
- Legal analysis and reasoning, legal research, problem-solving, and written and oral communication related to legal ethics and professional responsibility;

- Exercise of proper professional and ethical responsibilities to clients and the legal system;
- Reflection upon how to integrate conceptions of professionalism and the lawyer's role into your career;
- Recognition of the trends that will influence the future of lawyers' work; and
- Other professional skills needed for competent and ethical participation as a member of the legal profession.

You are also required to register for TWEN; I will regularly use TWEN to communicate about the course and to post your weekly assignments and lectures.

Our Asynchronous Classroom. This course will be taught in a fully asynchronous format. We will not meet in person, unless you would like to set up a time to meet during my office hours.

- Each week on Wednesday morning you will receive a new “class” installment on TWEN, with all quizzes/activities due the following Tuesday by midnight. This will include a set of recorded lectures based upon mandatory reading from the PRACA casebook. A quiz of multiple choice or short answer will accompany the lectures along with a practical exercise (for example CALI lessons, issue-spotting role play videos, case studies from the LERW book).
- You are required to complete all assigned reading and to view all lectures, in addition to completing the quizzes and exercises. Some of these exercises may involve partner-based activities (which may be conducted in-person with your assigned partner or via Skype, Zoom, or phone). Feedback will be provided via regular memos that I will post every couple of weeks.
- No credit will be given for late work. Do not wait until the last minute to complete your work. See “Attendance” below for more details.
- These assignments have been designed to provide opportunity for regular and substantive interaction between the faculty member and student and among students as required by ABA Standard 306 for distance learning. I will regularly monitor your effort in the course and you are welcome to communicate with me at any time about your effort, in addition to the feedback you will receive directly from some of the activities. That said, you are responsible for keeping track of completed assignments, quizzes, etc.
- I grant permission for students currently enrolled in the course to access the video-recordings and other materials posted on TWEN solely for the purpose of participating in the course. The recordings may not be used by any person other than a student enrolled in the course or for any other purpose. Students are strictly prohibited from distributing or selling any portion of the recordings or materials.

Assessment. Assessment in this class is based upon participation quizzes and weekly exercises (50%) and a final exam (50%). Thoughtful, well-reasoned and well-edited, professional school level work is required and is a component of your grade, including on the final exam. This includes proper citation to rules, cases, laws, ethics opinions, etc. Your assessment work product must be exclusively your own, with help from no other person or technological system; no artificial intelligence systems may be a part of your process to generate assessment work product.

Participation. The points for participation will be based upon:

1. Timely completion of all assignments and quizzes
2. Thoroughness of responses to the case studies from the LERW book
3. Participation in role plays/CALI exercises/other weekly activities

Please note that participation points are not based upon a curve and it is my hope every class participant will receive all of the allotted points. I reserve the right to raise a grade by one grade increment (ex: B to B+) for significant and consistent work that exceeds the normal expectation of the class, as determined in my sole discretion. In particular, weight will be given to thorough and thoughtful responses to the case study assignments. I also reserve the right to lower a grade by one grade increment (ex: B to B-) for significant and consistent work that does not meet the normal expectation of the class. This reduction may be in addition to loss of participation and effort points, discussed above.

Final Exam. The final exam will be an open-book, take-home exam that I will make available for you to take during the exam period. Please note that due to the online nature of the course, the exam will not be anonymous. You will access the exam via TWEN at a time convenient for you, and you will be required to complete it in three hours unless you have an official accommodation.

Contact Information/Office Hours. I am (essentially) always online. Email is the best way to communicate: jeffersonrk@uh.edu. My standing office hours are Thursdays between 3-4PM and by appointment. Please email me in advance to set up a 10-15 minute meeting block. If you have a class, work, or care-giving conflict on Fridays, please let me know and we can set up an alternative time. All office hours will be held via Zoom: <https://uhlc.zoom.us/j/9571508708>

The MPRE. For admission to the bar of most states (including Texas), you must pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam (MPRE). The MPRE is a multiple-choice exam covering the ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct and Code of Judicial Conduct as well as generally accepted principles established in federal and state cases regarding the conduct of lawyers. This class will cover a number of subjects included on the exam and will provide a useful background; however, this is not an MPRE review course. Before you take the MPRE, I STRONGLY encourage you to take a review course in addition to this class. More information can be found at <http://www.ncbex.org/about-ncbe-exams/mpre/test-dates-deadlines-and-fees/>

Attendance. In an online course there is, obviously, no physical “attendance.” However, you are required to keep up with the assignment schedules as set forth in the syllabus. Falling behind that schedule may result in your forced withdrawal from the course. All units must be completed, and the standards met for credit, to receive credit for the course and to be cleared to take the final. Failure to do so will result in an incomplete. You are also required to watch all course videos/lectures. NO CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN FOR LATE QUIZZES OR WEEKLY ACTIVITIES, SO PLEASE PLAN ACCORDINGLY FACTORING IN TIME FOR EMERGENCIES AND UNEXPECTED LIFE EVENTS. Please note that the University’s Graduate Excused Absence Policy policy allows for accommodations in the following situations: medical illness of student or close relative, death of a close family member, legal or government proceeding that a student is obligated to attend, recognized professional and educational activities where the student is presenting, and University-sponsored activity or athletic competition. Under these policies, students must contact me for an adjusted deadline to make up any quiz, exam or other work that contributes to the course grade or a satisfactory alternative. Additional policies at these links address absences related to military service, religious holy days, pregnancy and related conditions, and disability.

Names/Preferred Pronouns. I want to address each of you in a manner that corresponds to your identity. Although mistakes happen, proper pronunciation, chosen names and preferred pronouns—including non-binary ones such as they | them | their | Mx.—are respected in my classroom. Please feel free to reach out to me at any time if you want to make me aware of your chosen name or preferred pronoun or proper pronunciation or if you have other concerns.

Diversity, Inclusion, and Wellness. At UHLC, we are committed to ensuring inclusive online and classroom learning spaces, where you’ll be treated with respect and dignity, and where everyone is provided the equitable opportunity to participate, to contribute, and to succeed. In this course, all students are welcome regardless of socio-economic status, age, race, ethnicity, disability, religion, national origin, veteran's status, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, political affiliation, marital status and other diverse identities that we each bring to class. Our class is richer for this diversity. Inclusive learning spaces facilitate the innovation and creative thought that enhance student success. This success arises from the participation, support, and understanding of you and your colleagues. I encourage you to speak up and to share your views, but also understand that you are doing so in a learning environment in which we're all expected to engage respectfully and with regard to the dignity of all others. If you feel more comfortable speaking with someone besides me, Student Services is an excellent resource. 713- 743-2182.
