Course Description

This course is a practical course involving representing actual clients with their legal issues. You will be working on cases filed in Justice, County, and District courts. Most of your cases will primarily relate to landlord and tenant law, real estate issues, deceptive trade practices, debt collection, bankruptcy, negotiation strategies, simple wills and probate matter, guardianship, real property disputes, and family and domestic relations cases. Other cases of interest will be taken occasionally as well. After completing this course, students will have the necessary legal and practical knowledge to represent clients effectively upon starting to practice law mostly as a first-year associate in a small firm.

In this course, you will be responsible for cases as the primary attorney. Some of the course is for the students to determine what actions they would take as an advocate.

Regular participation in the clinic is required. You must work 50 hours per course credit hour for a total of 200 hours. There is a weekly staff meeting class that last approximately 1 ½ to 2 hours. In the event that our class needs to be rescheduled, I will give you advance warning by email. This will not happen often, but may happen from time to time. All postponed/cancelled classes will be rescheduled.

This is a clinical University of Houston Law Center course. Accordingly, Law Center policy requires the applicable curved scale. Work performance, attendance, and participation, including turning in all assignments, will count toward your final grade.

I am available to discuss your cases any time I am here at UHLC. My office is 343G and my phone number is (713) 743 -2169 (UHLC).
