Just to recap from the class website and our discussion yesterday, our reading assignment for tomorrow's class is pp. 80-106 and 114-116. We will wrap up our introductory overview of implementation of federal statutes with a discussion of the Weber decision in light of our prior knowledge of the Civil Rights Act's passage and its application given subsequent events and issues.

Our reading panel will be:

Jeremiah Clark
Gabriella Cole
Robert Cross

Also, please remember that we will have a guest speaker next Monday: Donna Warndorf, the director of Harris County's legislative affairs office. She will discuss the Texas legislative process (and how it differs from federal legislative procedures), and she will also discuss tactics and advice for attorneys advocating for their clients in the Legislature.

Enjoy the rainy weather, and see you tomorrow.
