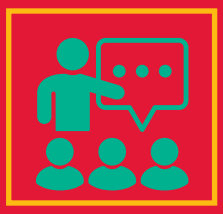
Kirk L. Dobbins American Health Law Association Travel Scholarship Award

For the AHLA Fundamentals Conference



Fundamentals Conference Info

The Fundamentals of Health Law conference provides essential training for new and experienced health law professionals. Speakers deliver practical legal insight and forward-looking guidance to help attendees build and strengthen their practice.

Dates: November 1-3, 2026
Location: Chicago, IL

What the Scholarship Covers

Two students will receive funding to cover up to $2,300 in travel expenses, including the conference registration fee, economy airfare, accommodations, transfers to and from the hotel and airport, and reasonable meal expenses.

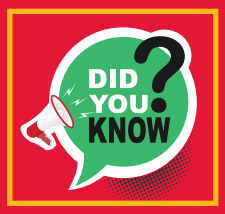
Apply

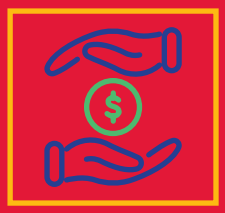
Application Materials: Résumé and 1-2 paragraphs about your interest in health law/why you want to attend the conference.

Application Deadline: August 28, 2026

What to Know About AHLA

AHLA's free student membership connects you to a national network of nearly 12,000 members and over 25,000 health law professionals, offering practical resources that complement your legal education. Student members receive exclusive educational resources. Learn more about student membership benefits and new engagement resources on the AHLA Student Engagement webpage.





About the Donor

Kirk Dobbin's path to health law grew out of his background in chemistry and clinical research, which led him to pursue health law at UHLC, where his legal career began. AHLA has served as his professional home throughout his 30-year career, and through this scholarship he seeks to give back to the institution that launched him and support the next generation of health law students.

More Information and submit the application to:
April Moreno afmoreno@uh.edu

Health Law & Policy Institute
University of Houston Law Center